SYNOPSIS:

UNTITLED LOVESTORY is an imaginative and action-driven romance by award-winning writer and director Peter Koller.

Set in a world in between fiction and reality the story focuses on Bali - a quirky young writer, who is writing a novel about four bank-robbing gangsters - and his futile struggle to find his true love.

One day he meets the girl of his dreams: His Goddess. Yet not all is well, as the story takes a dark twist when Bali finds out that his Goddess is far from perfect.

But this time Bali doesn't run away. He grabs the challenge and with the meanest cops on his heels, his Goddess riding shotgun, Bali escapes into his own story, where he unites with his Gangsters to encounter the cops for the final showdown.

The movie is a wild, romantic ride with many unforeseen moments, a modern spaghettiwestern, an eulogy to imagination...

UNTITLED LOVESTORY is "Amelie" meets "From Dusk Till Dawn".
